

2012 and 2013 ACDE AWARDS

ACDE has Awards to acknowledge outstanding contributions of colleagues to the discipline of Education. The 2013 Awards were presented at the ACDE Annual Conference on 16 September.

Distinguished Service to the Profession Award

- Professor Marie Emmitt outgoing Dean Australian Catholic University; and
- Professor Peter Renshaw University of Queensland, Secretary Treasurer ACDE 2004 to 2010.

2013 Journalism Awards

The Australian Council of Deans of Education offers these awards, with the support of the Australian Government, to recognise outstanding education journalism. The winners of the 2013 outstanding education journalism Awards are:

Minister's Award - $5,000

Mandy Squires

Geelong Advertiser

Series called, 'In My Skin', published 15-19 October 2012

Young Journalism Award - $2,000

Lauren Novak

The Advertiser and the Sunday Mail

Body of work on sexual assaults in public schools,

Student Journalism Award - $1,000

Amy Rathbone

Documentary film available on the internet.

'Unschooling: A True Education?' Published 18 June 2013

ACDE wishes to thank the Australian Government Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) for their continued support of this award.

2012 winners

Distinguished Service to ACDE Award

This award was presented to Ms Barbara Preston, in recognition of her outstanding contribution to Education through her dedicated service to ACDE over 20 years.

2012 Journalism Awards

The winners of the 2012 Awards are listed below:

Minister's Award - $5,000 - prize shared

Andrew Stevenson

Sydney Morning Herald

'Back to School'; August 4, 2012

John Ross

The Australian

Body of work on the denial of public services to overseas students

Young Journalist Award - $2,000

Yasmine Phillips

The Sunday Times

'WA's most remote school'; July 8, 2012

Student Journalist Award - $1,000

Joel Werner

The Australian

'What's ailing our science?'; July 18, 2012