

ACDE Media release: Journalism Award winners announced

The Australian Council of Deans of Education congratulates the winners of the 2005 ACDE Excellence in Education Journalism Awards.

The awards recognise the highest quality journalism which provides a deeper understanding of significant educational issues and celebrates the work of educators in any of the educational sectors. In 2005 the awards were again proudly sponsored by the Department of Education, Science and Training.

2005 Awards

Winner, Minister's Award for Excellence

Caitlin Shea, Australian Story, ABC, 4/10/04, "Good Morning, Mr Sarra"

Winner, Print media: Best news report

Ricky Sutton, Daily Telegraph, 20/6/05 HSC for Sale

Highly Commended:

Ricky Sutton, Daily Telegraph, 28/2/05 Speak Up on Bullies

Samantha Maiden, The Australian, 1/9/04, PM fails $100,000 degree test

Winner, Print media: Best feature

Jane Cadzow, Good Weekend 5/3/05, Who's a clever kid, then?

Highly Commended:

Mark Dapin, Good Weekend 21/8/04, Deaf, and proud.

Winner, Electronic media (radio and/or television): Best Feature

Pip Courtney, Landline ABC, 8/5/05, Charleville Swag

Winner, Print or electronic media; Best commentary/opinion/critique

Shane Green, The Age, The Great University Hoax

Highly Commended:

Tim Dodd, The Australian Financial Review, End for Melbourne's mini-me